6 days in the cross-cultural meeting center Afacan in Turkey

– free of charge!

Afacan is on the Aegean coast, 80 km north of Izmir, and is a place where mostly (but not only) young people from far and wide come together to get to know each other, play, create, have fun together – and learn from each other.

We want to continue spreading the word about Afacan, so we're offering a six-day stay (full board) in the months of May and September 2012 to groups who want to carry out a self organized cross-cultural experience – completely free of charge.

Our offer is open to groups of younger or older people of various backgrounds who want to spend time together and take advantage of the many opportunities in and around Afacan for shared projects.

This offer cannot be combined with other forms of support from the Er-Fahren working group.
